

Fred Easa Farah

October 22, 1937-May 13, 2012

Freddy passed from this life into the gates of heaven with the love of his family. Freddy immigrated to the United States with his family when he was 9 years old. Like many of his cousins, Freddy graduated from Andrew Jackson High School. His senior year was significant in that he was awarded an athletic scholarship to play football at the University of Georgia. (go dawgs!!!!).

Freddy spent his professional life in the paper business. He was the proud co-founder of Pioneer Paper and Plastics Inc. He was predeceased by his parents, Easa and Zahia (Ally) Farah, brothers Khalil and Mansaur and sister Bahia (Ziadeh) Farah. His survivors include, wife, Brenda Kowkabany Farah, daughter, Lisa Farah Ghanayem (Alfred), son, Fred Easa Farah Jr., and sister Ann Farah. Freddy is also survived by his 5 grandchildren, Jabra Alfred , Abigail Farah, and Michael Jamil Ghanayem, and Easa Farah and Olivia Farah.

Freddy was a generous and devoted husband, father, brother, grandfather, and uncle. His passing leaves a hole in our hearts, but we are grateful he is finally at rest. There will never be another like him.
